Allergic Rhinitis Treatment Options

The symptoms of allergic rhinitis include nasal congestion, a runny nose, sneezing, and itching. Although these symptoms may occur at anytime, some individuals may experience symptoms during specific seasons of the year. Symptoms may also only occur in response to certain allergens in the air, such as dust mites, mold, animal allergens, and pollen. Skin testing is often used by allergy specialists to determine the level of susceptibility to experiencing reactions produced by the protein immunoglobulin E.

If the cause of allergic reactions tends to be allergens such as pollen that occur outdoors, it is advised that time spent outdoors should be minimized during times of year when pollen levels are high. Additionally, allergens that commonly exist indoors can be minimized to reduce symptoms. A high efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filter can be used to help minimize the presence of certain indoor allergens. Intranasal antihistamines, such as azelastine (Astelin, Astepro) and olopatadine (Patanase), are often the first choice of medication for symptoms of allergic rhinitis. Intranasal corticosteroids, such as fluticasone (Flovent) also may be prescribed. Certain types of oral antihistamines, such as fexofenadine (Allegra) and cetirizine (Zyrtec) may be recommended because they do not cause drowsiness.

Dorothy Marie Taylor Breithaupt

Dorothy Marie Taylor Breithaupt, 79, of Eagle Lake passed away May 12, at Methodist Hospital in Sugar Land, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born November 1, 1929 in Weimar to William H. Taylor and Mary Elizabeth Michalcik Taylor.

Dorothy was united in marriage on January 29, 1948 to E. H. “Sonny” Breithaupt, and was happily married for 57 years at the time of his death.

Dorothy was involved with the Catholic Altar Society and Parent Teachers Association when her children were in school. Family vacations were always a highlight during the summer, going to Garner State Park and Schlitterbaun. Dorothy faithfully walked daily even after she had to start using a walker in 2007; but even then she continued her daily walk. During summer months, there wasn't a day that she didn't go swimming for exercise; although she said she couldn't swim very well, she could dog-paddle the entire pool.

She enjoyed taking care of her plants and flowers at her home; her hibiscus plants had the best blooms in town. Her family came first in her life and loved them very much. She really loved to go shopping with her girls!

She is survived by her daughters, Shirley Seaholm and husband, Gus, of Eagle Lake, Linda Henske and husband, Jerry, of Banquete, Texas, Connie Gertson and husband, Ralph, of Eagle Lake; son, William Carl Breithaupt of Rockdale, Texas; brother, William Taylor, Jr. and wife, Carolyn, of Buckholts, Texas; grandchildren, Kevin Henske, Tanya Henske Stivors, Gus Seaholm, Jr., Kari Seaholm Canaris, Sunny Gertson Dippel, Ralph Gertson, III, Dillan Gertson, Justin Breithaupt, Breann Breithaupt, Bradley Breithaupt, Brande Breithaupt; great-grandchildren, Tallon Canaris, Drayton Canaris, Wesley Wrobliski, Allison Henske, Wyatt Henske, Zane Henske, Tristan Stivors, Kyrstan Stivors, Anistan Stivors, Victoria Dippel; niece, Daphane Taylor Hartman of Bryan; nephews, Brice Taylor of Milano, Texas and Russell Taylor of Moody, Texas.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and husband, Ewald H. “Sonny” Breithaupt.

Services were held at Parish of the Nativity Catholic Church in Eagle Lake, Friday, May 15, at 10 a.m.

A rosary was held at Eagle Lake Funeral Home Thursday at 7 p.m. and burial took place at St. Michael's Catholic Cemetery in Weimar.

Pallbearers were Kevin Henske, Gus Seaholm, Jr., Ralph Gertson, III, Dillan Gertson, Justin Breithaupt, Bradley Breithaupt, Brice Taylor and Russell Taylor.

Honorary Pallbearers were Stanley Kucherka, Wilbert Kucherka, Jiggs Mrazek, Ervin Michalcik and Lonnie Mrazek.

Services were under the direction of Eagle Lake Funeral Home.

Sympathy is extended to the family in their loss.
