Sheridan Class Of 1959 Holds Reunion

On Saturday, April 18, at the Sheridan Community Center, the 1959 graduates of Sheridan High School celebrated the 50th anniversary of their graduation from Sheridan High School with a reunion of the class members, members of other Sheridan High School classes, family and friends.

This reunion will be remembered for the much needed rain that day that kept a few from attending, but those that did make it to Sheridan enjoyed a wonderful day of fun and fellowship with each other.

The highlight of the day's activities was the special presentation of a bronze plaque to honor Mr. Charles W. DeShazo (former teacher and principal of Sheridan School and Superintendent of the Sheridan Independent School District) of Huntsville.

The bronze plaque, which will be placed in the Sheridan School, and a small wooden plaque given to Mr. DeShazo, reads:

"In Appreciation for His Contributions to the Students of the Sheridan Independent School District This Plaque is Presented to Charles W. DeShazo Superintendent of Sheridan ISD 1964-1970, Principal of Sheridan School 1953-1964, Teacher and Mentor, To Scores of Successful Students Who Came Under His Tutelage and Influence, Presented by His Many Pupils and Admirers April 18, 2009."

The Class of 1959 had 13 graduates, and 8 attended: Richard Murphy, and wife, Karen, of Lakeland, Florida; J. L. Vawter, and wife, Laneil Peterson, of Houston; Raymond Mayes, and wife, Jo Lee, of Rockport, Texas; Gail Warthen Rother, and husband, Mel, of Friendswood; Bonnie Blanchard Smith, and husband, Richard, of Thompsons, Texas; Don DeShazo, and wife, Hilda, of McAllen; Ben Smith of Sheridan; and Wayne Dupre, and wife, Natalie, of Sheridan. Unable to attend were: Louise Gore Best of Lakewood, Colorado; Nancy Fugett of Castro Valley, California; and Linda Robison Boatman of Spicewood, Texas.

1959 class members, Louise G. Best, Nancy Fugett, and Linda R. Boatman, that were not able to attend, were recognized, and a moment of silence was observed in memory of our classmates, family, and friends that have passed away.

Members of the 1959 class of what has taken place in their lives during the past 50 years, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent visiting with one another.

There has always been a special bond among the students that attended Sheridan School, and it is certainly evident in the number of former students, teachers, and family and friends that continue to attend the reunions in Sheridan year-after-year. This was a wonderful day for the Class of 1959.

The 1960 Class of Sheridan High School is making plans to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their graduation on Saturday, April 24, 2010.
