Turner Finishes Medical School

Valerie B. Turner, daughter of Bella and Carlos Galvan of Eagle Lake, received her medical degree on May 30, at the 119th School of Medicine commencement at the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston.

Dr. Turner is the granddaughter-in-law of Mrs. Lois Pauline Walkingsstick of Eagle Lake. She is a 1999 graduate of Rice High School in Altair and a 2003 graduate of the University of Texas at Austin.

She will be completing a four-year residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the University of Texas Medical Branch.

Dr. Garland D. Anderson, executive vice president and provost and dean of the School of Medicine, presided over the 2009 commencement ceremony, and Dr. Francisco G. Cigarroa, chancellor of the UT System, and a distinguished transplant surgeon, addressed the graduates.

The University of Texas Medical Branch is a major academic health center dedicated to improving the lives of others through health sciences education, clinical care and biomedical research.

Opened in 1891, UTMB combines a rich history of service with a forward-thinking spirit to fulfill its role as a public trust for the people of Texas and beyond. The School of Medicine at UTMB has provided medical school or residency training to one in six Texas physicians and is a leader in medical school education, translational research and clinical care.

Kallina Recognized By Achievement Academy

The United States Achievement Academy announced that Kayli Elizabeth Kallina from Garwood has been recognized by the United States Achievement Academy as a student of excellence in Student Council.

This is a prestigious honor very few students can hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes fewer than 10% of all American high school students.

Kayli Kallina who attends Rice High School was nominated for this honor by Kathryn Nutter a counselor at the school. Kayli will appear in the United States Achievement Academy's official yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in American history. Certainly, United States Achievement Academy students should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, founder of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy recognizes students upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors and upon the Standards for Selection set forth by the Academy. The Standards for Selection include academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a qualified sponsor.

Kayli is the daughter of Tom and Sally Kallina of Garwood. Grandparents are Anthony and Bernice Kallina of Garwood and Richard and Bernice Stolle of Gilmer, Texas.

the agreement or relevant state law that would require LCRA to sell water to SAWS even though properly conducted feasibility studies show that no water can be made available to SAWS under the terms of the agreement and project requirements defined by state law.

LCRA said that it was complying with all terms of the agreement and with legislation that requires LCRA to determine whether any sale of water to SAWS "will protect and benefit the lower Colorado River watershed and the authority's water service area, including municipal, industrial, agricultural, recreational, and environmental interests."

The LCRA Board decided in December 2008 that the study should take into consideration, accelerated growth of municipal and industrial demand, as well as other conditions.

Updated projections for water needs in the lower Colorado River basin are more than previously projected.

SAWS wants LCRA to use outdated data.

Given the requirement to protect the Colorado River basin's interests, LCRA said in the May 28, letter, it would be "unscientific and imprudent, at best," to use outdated data that do not reflect accelerated population growth and water needs.

LCRA also continued to reaffirm its desire to work with SAWS on regional water planning for mutual benefit.

LCRA denied it took unilateral action to kill the project after the preliminary study results were known.

"To the contrary, at SAWS' request LCRA has taken steps to reduce ongoing study expense while
