

Friday Is School Day At The Colorado County Fair

Friday, September 11, will be school day at the fair. All county schools are invited to bring their students in Pre-K, Kindergarten and first grade between 9 a.m. and noon to enjoy Noah's Way Exotic

Petting Zoo, Buttons the Clown, the Mobile Dairy Classroom and Farm Bureau's Educational Trailer. For students from the county's junior and senior high schools, the Garwood Lions Club will again sponsor the Academic Rodeo.

and over 1000 pieces of western art done by students from schools across the entire county.

All activities begin at 9 a.m.

Reservations are not necessary. Persons needing additional information should call School Day chairmen Evelyn Orange at 979-732-3341 or Pamela Potter at 979-732-2705.

Young fair patrons will be able to interact with exotic animals including llamas and kangaroos at this year's fair.

Visiting school groups can also check out the livestock shows in progress and tour the Exhibit Hall to see hundreds of items entered in the creative homemaking department
