Raiders Lose To Sealy 26-6

Rice again drove into Sealy territory when a holding penalty negated a 38-yard touchdown pass and the Raiders ended up punting after getting backed into a long yardage situation due to penalties.

Two plays later, however, Rice was back in business when J. J. Reggins intercepted a pass and returned it to the Sealy 45.

Rice pushed the ball down to the 35, but a fumble gave the ball back to Sealy at the Rice 45.

The teams traded possessions as time ticked off the clock and eventually ran out on the Raiders.

Sealy added their final points with less than two minutes on the clock when a Raider pass was intercepted and returned for a touchdown.

Final score was 26-6.

Defensive standouts on the night for Rice were:

Chris Dorsey, 9 total tackles; Damien Stevens, 6 total tackles; and Francisco Vazquez, 5 total tackles.
