Raiders Beat Weimar 21-13

Weimar took over and began to move the ball, but their drive bogged down about midfield, and they were forced to punt the ball away.

The Raiders also pushed the ball toward midfield with the running game, but were forced to punt when the drive sputtered out.

Weimar took over at the 47 and on the first play Hawthorne tossed the ball back to his brother Lynx Hawthorne who then threw a bomb downfield for a Wildcat touchdown.

The extra point tied the game at 7-7 with 3:24 left in the half.

Weimar then tried a sneak inside kick, but the Raiders handled it and took over near midfield.

Three plays later, Weimar picked off a pass and took the ball at the 44.

Rice returned the favor two plays later when Hull intercepted a Weimar pass.

Rice ended up punting, and the Wildcats took a knee to send the game to halftime tied a 7-7.

The Raiders got the ball to start the second half, but were unable to push past midfield and punted away.

Weimar took over at the 20, and broke a 30-yard run to near midfield.

Three plays later, they connected on a 22-yard pass to the Rice 30.

They ran the ball four straight plays to score a touchdown.

The extra point missed, however, and Weimar took the lead 7-13 with 5:02 left in the third quarter.

Rice kept the ball on the ground on the next drive, grinding toward midfield.

The Raiders broke a huge run on first down at the Weimar 48, but a hold on the play brought it back.

They were unable to convert the first down a few plays later and were forced to punt.

Weimar took over at the 36 and immediately picked up 21 yards into Raider territory.

A holding penalty backed them up, however and three plays later Carlos Sosa came up with a third Raider interception.

The Raiders cashed in immediately. Dumont took the snap and after a quick drop back, lobbed a perfect pass down the middle into the hands of Hull who took it the rest of the 74 yards to make the score 13-13.

Samaniego nailed the point after to put Rice on top 14-13 with 11:29 left in the game.

The Wildcats again looked to be on the move on their next drive. They ran the ball three times into Raider territory at the 37.

After three plays with no gain, Weimar went for it on fourth down and a Sosa came up big again, breaking up the pass attempt to give Rice the ball.

Rice went right back to running game, with one 24-yard pass to Hull mixed in.

The Raiders took eight snaps and drained over four minutes off the clock en route to scoring another touchdown on a Shorter run from 12 yards out.

Samaniego made the extra point and Rice led 21-13 with 4:01 left in the game.

Weimar mishandled the kickoff and had to start from their own 12.

The Raider defense stood tough and denied three run attempts, forcing Weimar to punt the ball away with 1:46 left.

The Raiders were able to drain the rest of the clock for the victory.

Defensive standouts for Rice were:

Chris Dorsey, 11 tackles, 3 solo, 1 for loss; Francisco Vazquez, 9 tackles, 4 solo; Damien Stevens, 6 tackles, 3 solo, interception; Terrance Shorter, 6 tackles, 3 solo; Carlos Sosa, 4 tackles, 3 solo, interception, pass broken up.
