June 10, 1999

NEWSippets

Parish of the Nativity June Festival is Sunday

The Parish of the Nativity in Eagle Lake invites the public to the annual June Festival on Sunday, June 13, at Andrew Hall and grounds located on the church property at 308 South Main Street in Eagle Lake. Events will run from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and include entertainment, food booths, auctions, and much more.

Eagle Lake Police Report

On June 4 at 4 a.m., Officer Nelson arrested a 29-year-old man who allegedly was driving a stolen vehicle in the 800 block of East Main Street. The man was taken into custody and transported to the CDC for confinement.

Memorial Day holiday weekend claims 37 lives

Thirty-seven people died in traffic crashes in Texas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, 10 times worse than the estimated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) total. The number may rise as some reports are not included in the count until the weekend was over.

Live Oak sets antiques appraisal evening

It is time for everyone to stretch their attic, barns and closets and find the treasure within. Live Oakantiques dealers may bring two antiques, including attic jewelry, and receive a certificate of value from certified appraiser.

Prairie Chicken Festival plans meeting

The committee for the Eagle Lake's Prairie Chicken Festival (PCF) will hold a meeting to discuss the Prairie Edge Museum at 11 a.m. Thursday, July 1 in the community center. The meeting will be open to the public and will provide an opportunity for attendees to discuss various aspects of the festival.

Memorial Day holiday weekend claims 37 lives

Thirty-seven people died in traffic crashes in Texas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, 10 times worse than the estimated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) total. The number may rise as some reports are not included in the count until the weekend was over.

Eagle Lake Police Report

On June 4 at 4 a.m., Officer Nelson arrested a 29-year-old man who allegedly was driving a stolen vehicle in the 800 block of East Main Street.

Memorial Day holiday weekend claims 37 lives

Thirty-seven people died in traffic crashes in Texas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, 10 times worse than the estimated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) total. The number may rise as some reports are not included in the count until the weekend was over.

Eagle Lake Police Report

On June 4 at 4 a.m., Officer Nelson arrested a 29-year-old man who allegedly was driving a stolen vehicle in the 800 block of East Main Street.

Memorial Day holiday weekend claims 37 lives

Thirty-seven people died in traffic crashes in Texas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, 10 times worse than the estimated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) total. The number may rise as some reports are not included in the count until the weekend was over.

Eagle Lake Police Report

On June 4 at 4 a.m., Officer Nelson arrested a 29-year-old man who allegedly was driving a stolen vehicle in the 800 block of East Main Street.

Memorial Day holiday weekend claims 37 lives

Thirty-seven people died in traffic crashes in Texas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, 10 times worse than the estimated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) total. The number may rise as some reports are not included in the count until the weekend was over.

Eagle Lake Police Report

On June 4 at 4 a.m., Officer Nelson arrested a 29-year-old man who allegedly was driving a stolen vehicle in the 800 block of East Main Street.

Memorial Day holiday weekend claims 37 lives

Thirty-seven people died in traffic crashes in Texas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, 10 times worse than the estimated by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) total. The number may rise as some reports are not included in the count until the weekend was over.