Miss Julia Walker returned from Galveston last Wednesday, after being absent from this city about three weeks.

J. A. Frazar, of Henrietta, formerly of Eagle Lake, was visiting his many friends in town last week.

On the 27th of this month THE HEADLIGHT will issue its anniversary edition. Send in your advertisements and news items at least a week before that day.

The Reading Circle met last Friday night at the residence of Mrs. J. W. McCarty, and the following program was carried out:

1. Reading, Le Campbell.
2. Vocal Solo, Mrs. Dobbins.
3. Reading, Miss Annabell Neal.
4. Reading, Miss Rosa Harris.
5. Piano Solo, Miss Florence Evans.
6. Recitation, Miss Bertha Bally.
7. Piano Solo, Miss Birtie Kaufhold.

As it was election night the following officers were elected: Miss Birtie Kaufhold, President; Lee Campbell, Vice-President; Charlie Campbell, Secretary; Payne Lloyd Treasurer.

Mrs. W. B. Meek, who resides at Camptonville, Cal., says her daughter was for several years troubled at times with severe cramps in the stomach, and would be in such agony that it was necessary to call in a physician. Having read about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy she concluded to try it. She found that it always gave prompt relief. It was seldom necessary to give the second dose. "It has not only saved us lots of worry and time," she says, "but also doctor bills. It is my opinion that every family should have a bottle of this remedy in the house." For sale by Norris & Gilmer.

"DEPENDING NOT THE LAY OF SMALL THINGS."
 VOL. I. EAGLE LAKE, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1885. No. 50

OUR GIRL
 Perhaps the new woman will last no longer than Little Lead Furniture did as the new kid with the shorts. The new woman is really the old one up to date and just a little ahead of the time.—New York Observer.

And now Daily Fox has been selling a newspaper reporter "the secret of beauty." Lead makes, "Dollars in your pocket" is the motto, why don't you use it?—Cleveland Journal.

The Cleveland girls have decided after debate that they are an improvement on their grandmothers. Charles Wendell Holden says that in order to impress people you must begin with their grandmothers. So that we must expect a great deal of those Cleveland girls' grandmothers.—Cleveland World.

MODERN IN HER WAY.—A Huntsville young lady, when interviewed on the question of marriage, made the following observation: "Well, I don't know if I would ever get married or not, but if a man has plenty of money, allied to a sweet disposition, and a mustache that curled at both ends, and his father was rich, and his mother and sisters aristocratic, and he wanted to marry me, and would promise to let me have my own way in everything, and keep me liberally supplied with money, and be liberal about diamonds and other gems, also about the millinery, never grumbling, and I really and truly loved him I shouldn't consider marriage a drawback."—Huntsville Item.

Sore Throat. Any ordinary case may be cured in one night by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm as directed with each bottle. This medicine is also famous for its cures of rheumatism lame back and deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by Norris & Gilmer.

Every business man in Eagle Lake should be represented in the anniversary edition of THE HEADLIGHT. Send in your "ads" immediately as work has commenced on the edition and it will appear on November 27th.

Norris & Gilmer, the printers will tell you that no one is better qualified to judge of the merits of an article than the dealer. So as they have their opinion on the merits of all who use it. For this reason they wish to publish the remarks of other dealers about an article which they handle. Messrs. C. F. Moore & Co., Van Buren, Ore., says: "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than all others put together, and it always gives good satisfaction." Mr. J. F. Auld, Fox, Ore., says: "I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." Mr. W. H. Pittscock, Columbia, Wash., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy sells well and is highly praised by all who use it." Sold by Norris & Gilmer.

A Kentucky editor, when challenged by a county treasurer for calling him "thunder-bolt," replied: "I will give you the thunder-bolt if you will promise the treasurer that he will not withdraw the challenge and accept an invitation to an office any longer."—Ec.

—E. R. Simms gathered eight bushels and three gallons of pecans from one tree a few days ago.—Sina Gulf News.

AN EDITOR AND HIS GRAY.—An editor who died of starvation after reading Dr. Young's remedy of himself, was being assisted to heaven by an angel who had been sent out for that purpose.

"May I look at the other piece before I get my personal happiness?" "No, it's all the angel's." "But I'm yellow and skinned and my thoughts are all wrong," said the editor, and went around looking at him. He found him looking at himself, turning himself with respect upon a sign of the cross. There was a sign of the cross which said: "Do not be afraid." "Do not be afraid," said the editor, "I'm not coming. This is heaven enough for me."—Memphis Appeal.
