Local and Personal.

The hit dog is sure to holler. Cotton ginning is still rushing. Huddleston's tin shop is in full blast. Traveling men are getting to be more numerous. Read the congressional news on our first page of this paper. Eagle Lake now has a night watchman in the person of Mr. Sikes. A pleasant social ball was enjoyed at the pavilion last night. Don't forget the fresh oysters at D. W. Stockbridge's today. The dancing school commences Sept. 27th, so we have been told. Mr. W. A. Dallas, after a month's vacation, is back at work again. The cotton platform at both depots to be very much like cotton season. Fr. Eddie Campbell left Thursday for Georgetown where he goes to school. Several of the Lake citizens are attending district court at Columbus this week. Cotton is turning out well and a better and larger crop will be gathered than was even expected. Miss Willie Hatchell, of East Bernard, is in Eagle Lake and will attend school here this season. Mrs. F. T. Jordan, after over a month's visit to her home folks at Yorkville S. C., returned last Monday. School opened with an attendance of 129, last Monday. Prospects are good for a very successful school. Mr. Campbell will miss his next regular appointment here on account of quarterly meeting at Alleyston. Now is the time to haul your cotton to the gin while the competition team is going on, it might not last a season. Prof. W. G. Souder passed through Eagle Lake last Tuesday evening en route for his home at Flatonia, after spending a few weeks vacation in the north.

COTTON! I Want to Gin Your COTTON.

I have gone to a heavy expense this year putting in new machinery repairing old, etc., and am now prepared to guarantee satisfaction in ginning and putting up cotton. I will gin your cotton and take the seed for my pay, furnish you bagging and ties free and

GIVE YOU $4.50 CASH.

Among my improvements I have added the Rembert patent cotton cleaner which gives you a clean sample of lint cotton from the dirtiest seed cotton you have. All I ask is a trial.

LAKE HAPPENINGS.

CANE DAY, Sep. 7.—The races come off as reported and the little mare and Mexican flew—I mean the truck—and Hattie claimed the "man" but was persuaded to draw down and call it a race. Times were very exciting for a while as usual at horse races. The 2nd race was won by the Whitton brown horse, no judges needed. That wound up the spot for last Friday evening; several were here from abroad. Mrs. Guyon and her two nieces, Mrs. Bettie Smith of Tyler, and Miss Carrie Guyon, of Columbus, were on the lake last Sunday evening. Mrs. Smith is here for a month's visit to relatives and friends, says mabe Kum will come down to accompany her home. This section is their old home, we are glad to have them among us. The carpenters are now through with the dwelling part of the pavilion and Mrs. Good is happy. Mr. Hardeman tells us that he has made a deal with Mr. Cooper, of New Philadelphia, and expects to move down soon. We regret very much to lose a good citizen but hope there will be others to take his place. We understand this evening that the prodigal child has come home, but no fattened calf was killed. The lake men wants to know: What is the matter with the people. The public grounds are still here. Don't be so easy bluffed, only a ten cent raise, need not call unless you want to. Wm. McFarland, Jim and Jake Sparks caught 9 nice trout last Wednesday evening and was only out one hour. Several evenings ago we were partly scared, amused and surprised. Between sundown and dark as we were eating supper we heard some one hit the walk as if he had to get across the lake at once and of course thought he wanted a boat which we are always ready to let. The fellow came rushing in and squirmed himself up to the counter as if he thought we were running a free lunch stand. I said: "Good evening, what is it?" When he leisurely said: "Oh, nothing, I'm just looking around." "Ten cents please for observing" said I. He said "you fellows must be hard up" and hit the grit. Whether the man was crazy or not I don't know but I do think he had a hot box. We have not seen him since nor don't want to. FROM RAMBLER. Our white school opened last Monday under most favorable auspices. A full corps of teachers and quite a number of pupils. It is still of the opinion that as it is a home institution, we should have home talent. I know that we have smart boys and girls, yet I think we could find talent here sufficient to teach them. A few days ago the S. P. Co. killed a large cow between the depot and the new gin and they hauled and dumped it about 100 yards above the gin and Mr. Stelman's and left it there to do what it did—create such a stench as to make it almost beyond endurance. Rambler has a large produce, consequently got a double dose of the most noxious stink which that arose from her carcass. If there is power to compel them to carry stock which they kill out of the corporate limits, let that power be exercised. Some of our sidewalks are in a bad condition and the owners of the property they border ought to be made to fix them, and if they don't then let the town do it at the expense of the owners. Some of them are a disgrace to the corporation, especially that one around Sikes' store. Whose ever duty it is get a lump on yourself and have it done instantler. EGYPT IMPROVEMENTS. L. E. Inglis has just returned from a few days stay among his friends at Egypt, and says that the people there have not heard of hard times much less to feel the effects of it. First, he noticed that Messrs. Dunson & Northington have put an addition to their already large store and are handling a $10,000 stock of goods and their clerks are all kept busy. Next he noticed that Mr. Geo. Northington had just completed his fine barn which is clean to look at. It is by far the most comfortable and more convenient than any other stable in our community. He thought his fine blood surrounding his barn imaginable, and it is run over by the finest blooded horses that can be had which are all big fat and none for sale. Next was Mr. George's poultry yard, where every thing for the comfort of fowls was at its place, and the fowls were like the stock, none but fall blood. Next he saw that Mr. Billie Northington had just completed a fine barn similar to that of Mr. George only was equipped for the comfort of J. cattle, among which were some beetles. The good supply of water from the windmill to the dairy, together with the separator and other conveniences for handling milk, made it simply immense. Next was that Mr. G. C. Duncan had made quite an addition to his large barn to add to the comfort of his fine horses and mules. Next was that every one enjoyed life, and had plenty of time to take him out hunting, and other schemes for pleasure, and the greatest of all was that he had been so highly fed that his steps toward home were very reluctant and he says that Egypt is the country for good health, good people, good horses and a good time. OAKLAND ODDITIES. Weather very pleasant and cool, still very dry, caused from the slight norther for several days prevailing. The advance in the price of cotton lately is making a move in the right direction for us all. District court in session at Columbus is the attraction for many from West End this week. Messrs H. J. Strunk, M. K. Allen and A. D. Choates, are serving on the grand jury, and Messers R. Van Wagner, J. S. English, A. E. Woodbridge H. J. Lass, South Van Wagner, Will Clements and Bill McKennon attended as Witnesses. No preaching last Sunday as Bro. Haynie was called back to Welmer to attend the funeral of Mr. Shaw at Onaga. An ice cream supper at the school house for the benefit of same. Saturday night is the latest. Mr. R. Phares is grand jury lialiff of this West End. Mr. J. H. Mullin returned last Wednesday from a visit to Flatonia and Waunder, accompanied by his daughter Miss Alice and cousin, Miss Nora Mullin. Miss Ola Hutchins left Saturday for San Marcos where she goes to attend the Institute this term. Mr. S. G. Isdale is at Yorkton erecting a residence preparatory to moving his family there in the near future. Miss Riddle Ross, of Columbus and Miss Gussie Brown, of Galveston, are visiting relatives here at present. Messers Jones & Bally, washing fluid manufacturers left Thursday for Waunder. Mr. Tommie Mullin and sister Miss Lizzie, went to La Grange Thursday for a several days visit. Drummers Messers I. Jenkins and Carr were in town Wednesday. Denton Woolley of Floresville, is visiting relatives here this week. More anon. Wm. Kan. NOTICE to Tax payers. The Advertiser Tax for 1893 is now due. Be prepared to pay next week. W. E. Davis, Tax Collector of Eagle Lake September 8th, 1893. The sanitary condition of the town is not very favorable, also there are several every bad sidewalks and other places where work could be very appropriately applied. If parties owe the town fines and wont pay them what's the matter with getting this work done by said parties? Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalliner saved my wife. I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used" For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels. Price 75c. For sale by Wm. Looser.
