Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine out of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only treatable, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and irritates the stomach, pulling it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.
Mr. D. Kault, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in great pain. I had been treated with all kinds of medicine, but it did me no good. I then took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and in a few days I was able to eat and sleep as usual."
Keels Right When You Eat and relieve the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.
Bottle only, $1.00. The bottle 25 cents. Sold by R. T. Westmoreland & Co., Chicago.

Old Names of Places.
A correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal gives an interesting explanation of the origin of two queer names of places. The mountains of Kentucky afford many queer names of streams, peaks, towns and villages, but perhaps none are more remarkable than Kingdom-Come and Why Not. The first of these is the name of a stream in Leslie county, is taken from the Lord's Prayer, and is the scene of John Fox, Jr.'s recent story, "Little Shepherd of Kingdom-Come." The second is the name of a small pond in the county, and originates from the old song, "Why Not Tonight." It is said that an interesting religious revival was once held in this locality, at which this song was sung a great deal, and the people became so carried away with the music that the place was ever afterward called Why Not.

Nerve-Timing.

A curious instance of the exact minuteness with which the human body is now studied in the effort better to understand its powers and functions, is furnished by a paper read recently at a meeting of the Royal Society in London on the "Rapidity of the Nervous Impulse in Tall and Short Individuals." Even the difference in time required for a "nerve telegram" to traverse the bodies of different people is regarded as a matter of scientific importance. A series of observations has shown that the length of the nerve does affect the velocity with which an impulse passes between the brain and the extremities, and consequently that more time is needed if the path is long than if it is short. It follows that a short man should feel a step on his corns quicker than a tall man, but the difference is so slight that the offender has no better chance of escape in one than in the other.

The Cost of War.

The cost of war and warfare from 1893 to 1903, inclusive, says Edward Atkinson, the well known anti-imperialist, has been over $2,000,000,000. The cost of the war with Spain and of the warfare upon the people of the Philippine islands to the end of the last fiscal year, June 30, 1903, had been over $500,000,000, an addition in that fiscal year to the previous charge upon the taxpayers of this country of not less than $150,000,000. This charge is increasing rather than diminishing. At the end of the present calendar year, December 31, 1903, we shall have expended in war and warfare not less than $2,000,000,000 which sum will be slightly in excess of the outstanding bonded debt of the United States bearing interest. Of this sum about $177,000,000 is commonly assigned to the cost of the war with Spain. There are no exact data outside the government accounts by which this can be apportioned.

Robbed The Grave

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, psia continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy. The first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and now I am a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. guaranteed at Toliver's Drug Store.

When He Does It.
Professor E. G. Dexter, of the University of Illinois, was entertaining some students at his residence when one of the young men spoke admiringly of a splendid record that hung over the library fireplace. "Ah," said the professor, "as he took down the weapon and brandished it impressively, 'never shall I forget the day when I drew this truly blade for the first time.' He paused and smiled retrospectively. 'And where did you draw it, sir?' asked one of the students, much interested. 'At a rifle,' said Professor Dexter, and he hung it up again.

Cold's Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fyner, Marion, Ind. Who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and strain so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 145 to 95 pounds, I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight health and strength. Sold at Toliver's Drug Store."

Trimming Up a Poodle.

Two men met on the beach at Atlantic City. Behind one trotted a fine French poodle. "Splendid dog," remarked the other. "Yes. Prize winner, I should say." "Yes." "Don't you think he would look much better if trimmed like a lion?" "Yes; I should think shing'ng would help him." "Suppose I do the job; that's in my line." In a few minutes the shaggy dog had disappeared and a "trimmed-to-taste" Frenchman remained. "He was just like a poodle of the aristocracy—hope that side in carriages. He was a work of art. 'Splendid, splendid!' crowed the trimmer. 'He certainly looks fine,' said the other, about to resume his walk. 'Hold on, sir; sit, please.' 'Two dollars? For what? What do you mean, fellow?' 'Why, for shearing your dog.' 'What insolence! The dog doesn't belong to me. I never saw it before. Good day.'

Where there is Congo, flies "bake" it. EAGLE LAKE DRUG COMPANY

In 1845 a machine was invented for making twenty yards of Brussels carpet per day and matching figures.

The average tailor nowadays inwardly wishes he had a machine for "matching the figures" made by Geo. Redford, whose low prices for high-class work keep him guessing.

It took several companies of troops to save Henry Simmons, the negro ravisher and murderer of Miss Sandberg of Manor, at Austin from the hands of many enraged citizens of several counties. The negro made a most remarkable run through a rough country for some three days and nights, with hundreds of citizens in pursuit. He evaded his pursuers and was captured in a barn within a block of the police station at Austin. Any man who is a candidate for representative should resolve that just as soon as he gets to Austin as a representative that his first act will be to introduce a bill making it a law to have snob brutes executed the next day after the jury returns a verdict of death. The delay that necessarily occurs in appealing such cases is beyond endurance and invites vengeance at the hands of an enraged people. Such criminals have no mercy on their helpless victims, for which the laws of the country should show them less.

Lean Forward When Driving.
It is no longer considered smart for carriage folk who drive on Fifth avenue or in the park in New York to lean back in their victorias in the attitude that would suggest that they were enjoying their drive at ease.

The latest form seems to make it imperative that the occupant of an open vehicle, be it victoria or hansom, shall lean forward in an attitude of expectancy, with one foot extended as though the person was about to alight at the next moment. This rule seems only to apply to women, for the men lean back as of yore.

Australia Drives Color Line.

In Australia, under a new law, no contract can be made for the carrying of mails by any steamship line which allows a colored man to work on any of the ships. The mail steamers hitherto have been largely manned by dark-skinned British subjects from India.

What Dewey Really Gets.

A good many editorial paragraphs are being written on the theory that Admiral Dewey is to get the whole of that $500,000 prize money I. T. the Spanish ships sunk in Manila bay. As a matter of fact, his share will be one-fourth—$125,000.
