NADA NEWS.

We are having some very disagreeable weather these days which will delay us in planting our corn and cotton. Cool northerners are coming about every week which causes many of our farmers to be short of feed. Feed is very hard to get and at a fancy price at that. Corn is worth up to $1 a bushel and hay from $11 to $13 per ton. Many are short of firewood and the roads are in such bad condition that it can not be hauled.

Several of our citizens repaired the fence around the church land Monday.

Mr. Frank Popp went to Hillje Tuesday to assist his sons who are working their land there.

Mr. Ferd. Popp, Sr., went to Columbus yesterday to do jury service.

We are informed that Right Rev. Bishop Shaw of San Antonio will be at our church on the 14th of April to administer confirmation. Since the Taiton and Nada congregations belong together now and there not having been any confirmation the past eight years, it is expected that a great number will be confirmed this year. Rev. Father Held also informs us that the forty-hour devotion services will begin on Sunday, the 15th of this month, and that a Bohemian and German priest will be here to assist him.

Messrs Joe Popp, Joe Weselski, Otto Wobbe and Leo and Willie Leopold enjoyed a good game of Tarock at Mr. John Bittner's Sunday evening, while Mr. Ed. Boenisch joined the game at Dreamer's home.

The following were out visiting Sunday evening before church time: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staff, Sr., with Mr. and Mrs. Ferd. Popp, Jr., Mr. R. Schramm and family with Mr. Ferd. Popp, Sr., and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weselski with Mr. and Mrs. Ferd. Staff; Mr. Frank Arnold and family with Mr. Hubert Swoboda and family; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boenisch and Otto Wobbe with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wobbe; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schoellmann, Messrs. Frank, Henry and Gustave and Misses Annie and Helwig Staff with Mrs. John Boenisch and family; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watz with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Braden. Others out whom I did not mention will please excuse me for I did not know it, and would be glad to get as many as possible in the future.

Mr. O. G. Kohlberg of Eagle Lake, farm demonstration agent for Colorado county, visited our school last Friday and addressed the pupils about the Corn Club.

He is always welcome at our school for several of our boys are greatly interested along that line. DREAMER.

Things That Grow.

"I wouldn't take $1,000 for that windbreak," said a man, pointing to a double row of magnificent trees that sheltered his home and orchard on the north and west. His father had planted them 30 years before.

Plenty of trees are a great boon to any farm, not only shade and ornamental trees, fruit trees, etc. It requires a good part of a life-time to provide them, which is why many men keep putting off the planting of trees until they postpone it forever.

Most farms are undersupplied with growing trees. There are places where trees or shrubs or flowers should be growing, or where vine or bush or tree should be yielding fruit. Beyond the cost of the stock itself there is no expense involved in having the farm supplied with things that grow.—Farm and Ranch.

ROCK ISLAND NEWSLETS.

As Mrs. H. B. Cobban is to go away during this week, it was planned to have one more meeting of the Priscilla Club before her departure, so the club met with Mrs. Frazee on the afternoon of Monday. A going away shower was given her, such to her surprise and delight, many neat and pretty inexpensive gifts were among the shower. Mrs. Frazee passed around a dainty lot of good things and all pronounced the meeting one of great pleasure and kind fellowship. Then, at night while Mrs. Cobban was enjoying a visit with Mrs. Creviston in her pretty home the members of the Priscilla Club came in like a storm, and gave her another pleasant surprise. Those present were Mrs. Taylor; Mrs. Carter, Mrs. A. Wegenhof, Mrs. Frazee, Mrs. Creviston, Mrs. Hiles, Mrs. Cobban and Miss Burttschell of Columbus, Messrs A. Taylor, E. M. Frasco, A. Wegenhof, Dr. Creviston and Roxy Hawk. They wrestled with The Book-lover's Contest and a few games of Forty-two, and refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, salads, Floating Island, two kinds of cake and hot chocolate. All pronounced it a grand success.
