NADA NEWS.

The forty-hour devotion began at the Catholic church Sunday, continuing until Tuesday. This was the first time the people of this community had the opportunity to attend a forty-hour devotion here which was largely attended by people from Taiton, Garwood, Vox Populi and this place, and the church was crowded to its capacity during the services. The devotion was special for doing penance and hundreds of people received the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Rev. Father Rasla of St. John was here to assist Father Held in the Bohemian language. Rev. Held accompanied Rev. Rasla on his return to St. John where he assisted him in the celebration of the feast of Saint Joseph. Mr. Martin Korenek took them to Eagle Lake in his car.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fretsch of Jones Creek were here Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richter.

Messrs Joe, Ed, and Henry and Miss Annie Boenisch left last Friday for Hillje, returning home Monday. They report that Mrs. Henry Wendel is fast recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Obsvau, formerly of this section but late of Oklahoma, arrived Saturday for a visit among relatives and friends.

Mrs. Emil Kujesch and children of El Campo arrived Saturday for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Becak, Sr.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Krause upon the arrival of a pretty daughter at their home. Mother and child are doing well, while "daddy" is wearing the smile that won't come off. But much to our surprise the news came Friday morning that the Express family was made happy over the arrival of a big, bouncing boy. The editor, who is now "dad," is walking about on the streets of that place wearing all kinds of smiles and is, of course, happy over the fine boy and is desirous of him becoming an editor. Congratulations to the happy family. (Thanks, Dreamer, you've got another treat coming.—Ed.)

Following spent Sunday noon with friends and neighbors: Messrs Frank and Henry and Misses Mary and Hedwig Staff with the family of this writer; Mr. and Mrs. Staff with the family of Mr. R. Schramm; Mr. Frank Staff with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Leopold; Miss Theresia Popp with the family of Mr. John Schneider.

The Tarcock grime was had with Mr. Emil Leopold Sunday evening. Those there were Messrs Alvin and Otto Wobbe, Will and Leo Leopold, Joe Popp, Henry Latringer and the writer.

Some good improvements were made on our roads last week. The road from the church to the Mustang is dragged and a drainage pipe is in the corner of that and the Nada roads. Also some work was done on the black land road.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kallina, who are living out on the prairie near the Sandies, were here Sunday visiting her brother, Mr. John Dornak and wife.

GARWOOD, COLORADO COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1914.

To Improve Arthur Street.

A committee composed of Messrs J. G. Cooper, H. W. Huvar and Frank Arnold have been selected at a recent meeting of the Garwood Fire Department to call on the business men of the city for donations with which to grade Arthur Street. As outlined the road will be widened considerably by means of making the ditches closer to the sidewalks and deep enough for good drainage. Good culverts will also be put in where necessary. Those subscribing to the list to date are:

W. C. T. U. Program For April 16th.—Methu. Meeting.

The following program will be rendered Thursday, April 16th, at the Presbyterian church: Opening song—"I Need Thee." Scripture reading—Isaiah, 12th chapter. Roll call—Answered by children's sayings. Minutes. Paper—"The Punishment That Educates," by Mrs. J. J. Pinchback. Paper—"Adolescence," by Mrs. E. E. Gray. Discussion—"How to Deal With the Adolescent Child," by Mrs. F. W. Goodell. Reading—"The Angels' Gift," by Mrs. John Hopkins. Closing song—"Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" Aaronic Benediction. Mrs. L. A. McLachlan, Mrs. J. J. Pinchback, Mrs. John Hopkins, Mrs. W. B. Smith, Committee.

Mr. R. E. Walker, a prominent insurance agent of Eagle Lake, accompanied by Mr. Dallas Smith, representing Cravens & Cage, general insurance agents of Houston, were in Garwood Wednesday. The object of their visit was to make corrections on the insurance map of the city as well as to see that everything was rated correctly. Mr. Walker will also try to get the State Insurance Commission to give the city a 25c reduction off of the key rate for its fire department.

Notice To School Patrons.

I will conduct private school at the Garwood school building commencing next Monday morning. Rate will be $1.50 per month per child.

Mrs. W. B. Smith.

The large bell for the Garwood school arrived this week and will be put in its place in a short while. The bell has a fine clear sound and can be heard all over town when rung. The money to purchase this bell was raised at the recent entertainment given by the school children.

Notice To Base Ball Enthusiasts.

The Express is requested to state that all those interested in organizing a base ball team here this year will please meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in front of the Racket Store.

School is Out.

The Garwood public school closed last Friday at noon for the 1913-14 term. Prof. J. R. Laslie and family will continue to make their home here a while longer but will spend the summer at Palacios. The two lady teachers, Misses Alice Chew and Bessie Martin, left for their homes at Eagle Lake and Barr, respectively. The closing of the school so early this year was necessitated on account of a shortage of funds, but we are reliably informed that this will not likely occur again as practically all of the school's indebtedness will have been paid off by the next term.

Messrs J. N. Brower, H. W. Huvar and Dr. W. J. Roberts have bought the moving picture outfit of Mr. A. U. Stubblefield, and will operate it in the future with Mr. Brower as manager. The outfit is at present at Wallis, where it is being operated. Mr. Brower informs us that he will very likely move the outfit here next week.

J. H. Schoellmann For Commissioner.

In this issue appears the announcement of Mr. J. H. Schoellmann for commissioner of precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the white man's primaries to be held May 2nd. Mr. Schoellmann is one of the old and prominent citizens of the Nada section and is well qualified to fill that office if elected, having at one time served this precinct in that capacity. He is a close observer of matters of public interest and promises if elected to discharge the duties of that office to the best of his ability. He solicits your vote and support.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Marvel and children spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Rock Island, their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bunge of Altair were Garwood visitors here.

The Eliminating Convention.

At the voters meeting held Saturday afternoon to center on one man to make the race for commissioner of precinct No. 1 from this end of the county, nothing of any importance was done. Another meeting was ordered to be held two week before election day, but from present indications the voters are not likely to center on one man. In other words the eliminating convention is eliminated.

L. P. Bunge For Assessor.

Mr. L. P. Bunge of Altair, one of that city's prominent citizens, announces in this issue for the office of tax assessor of Colorado county, subject to the action of the white man's primaries to be held May 2nd. Mr. Bunge made the race for that office two years ago and made a creditable showing, and as he says, he hasn't quit running yet. He is a very pleasant and accommodating gentleman, well versed with the duties pertaining to the office, and promises if elected to discharge them to the very best of his ability. He respectfully solicits your vote and support for his primaries.

Mr. W. F. Causey, a prominent stockman of Eagle Lake, assisted by Mr. Elwood Stewart, drove in quite a large number of steers to Garwood Tuesday morning which they delivered to Mr. H. Lee Johnson of Altair, who met them here, and assisted by Mr. J. W. Walker of that place, drove them to Altair.

Dental Notice.

On account of bad weather and unfinished work, I will work in Garwood from Tuesday until Saturday of next week.

Dr. H. C. Sigler.

Local Society News

The Embroidery Club will meet at the home of Miss Laura Griffiths this afternoon. The last meeting was with Mrs. E. E. Gray. Bad roads and bad weather both made a small attendance, but those who did go had a fine time.

The W. C. T. U. will meet next Thursday with Mrs. G. A. Slawson. The last meeting was at the home of Mrs. W. H. Shaw. Bad weather caused a small attendance, but there was a report of the district convention which was enjoyed and Mrs. J. W. Fling was added to membership.
